

1. The Level C Letter of Permission is intended for new / prospective crane operators.
2. The Level C Letter of Permission in no way indicates that the holder possesses competence to run a crane.
3. The Level C Letter of Permission is valid for 6 months and is non-renewable. If, however, you change employers within the 6 month period, you may reapply with your new employer information.
4. Level C is valid only for the crane type indicated below.
5. No critical lifts (as defined by WorkSafeBC) are permitted.
6. The Level C Letter of Permission permits the prospective crane operator to operate the crane type specified below only under direct supervision of an individual who is qualified to supervise crane operations. The employer is to ensure that the supervisor is properly trained for the task and that there is a plan for supervision.
Direct supervision requires direct line of sight observation of the trainee and requires the supervisor to be close enough to the operator to communicate verbally with the operator.
7. The Letter of Permission will be sent to the employer and a copy to the prospective crane operator.

PRIVACY NOTE:
