

1. The Level C Letter of Permission is intended for new / prospective crane operators.
2. The Level C Letter of Permission in no way indicates that the holder possesses competence to run a crane.
3. The Level C Letter of Permission is valid for 6 months and is non-renewable. If, however, you change employers within the 6 month period, you may re-apply with your new employer information.
4. Level C is valid only for the crane type indicated below.
5. No critical lifts (as defined by WorkSafeBC) are permitted.
6. The Level C Letter of Permission permits the prospective crane operator to operate the crane type specified below only under direct supervision[†] of an individual who is qualified to supervise crane operations.
The employer is to ensure that the supervisor is properly trained for the task and that there is a plan for supervision.
7. The Letter of Permission will be sent to the employer and a copy to the prospective crane operator.

† Direct supervision requires direct line of sight observation of the trainee and requires the supervisor to be close enough to the operator to communicate verbally with the operator.
